My email addresses my concerns about possibly losing my local KLOVE radio station as well as others because of the Low Power FM service. Christianity excludes no one. You need not be of a certain financial status, age, or race. That is why Christian radio stations such as KLOVE exist, to spread this free message to all communities, none are insignificant in this matter of eternal importance. KLOVE's main mission is to reach and impact in a positive way the life of the unbeliever, the confused and the despairing wherever they are. But KLOVE also serves a purpose in the believer's life as well. As a believer and listener I am daily encouraged to strive to live my life according to God's teaching, and when I am spiritually weak simply hearing the message through song strengthens my faith.

Numerous stations like KLOVE are needed to answer the continual invasion of immorality, personal misfortune and discouragement in the world, with a message of hope. It would be a spiritual tragedy to lose even one KLOVE station that could have potentially changed countless lives forever. Thankyou for taking the time to read and consider my email.
